U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender was verbally reprimanded using cognitive behavioral based Staff Training Aimed at Reducing Re-Arrest. This training is a series of skills with clearly defined steps used to address an offender's thoughts, behaviors, and their subsequent consequences.

The Effective Use of Disapproval skill was used to address the offender's marijuana use. This skill allows the officer to address why a problem behavior is unacceptable and review the short-term and long-term consequences of engaging in that behavior. Following this, we encourage the offender to identify pro-social alternatives that can be implemented to prevent from engaging in negative behavior in the future and commit to employing the newly identified pro-social behavior.

We respectfully request that this notice serves as a written reprimand.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Maria Goodwater
U.S. Probation Officer
